Thursday, July 11. 1723.

London, July 11.

Yesterday arrived the Mails from France and Flanders.

Lisbon, June 10.

THE 6th Instant being the Anniversary of the Birth of the young Prince of Brazil, who then entered the 10th Year of his Age, being born on that Day in the Year 1714, the Nobility were on that Occasion admitted to kiss the Hands of their Portuguese Majesties.

Hambourg, July 13. The Muscovite Minister here has received Letters of the 25th past from Petersburg, giving an Account, that the Czar and his Court continue at Petershof, diverting themselves with sailing in Gondolas of a new Invention; that the Duke of Holstein every where accompanies the Czar, and receives now greater Marks of Distinction and publick Regard than hitherto have been shewn him, so that 'tis no longer doubted of his marrying the second Czarian young Princess. No other News is yet had of the Muscovite Fleet, except that it still continues in the Finland Seas only to discipline the Ships Companies, and probably will pass all the Summer in that Manner. Prince Repnin writes from Riga the 20th past, that several German Officers present themselves to him to be admitted to serve the Czar, but that he has refused them all, his Czars Majesty's Regiments being now sufficiently stock'd with National Officers. The Imperial Plenipotentiary Count Metsch who resided here, having executed his Commission at Dresden, is gone from thence to Prague to report the Success of his Negotiations to his Imperial Majesty. It is again strongly reported here, that the Porte has declared War against the Czar, and that General Aland is already near Asoph with 40000 Men, to make Head on that Side against the Turks.

Brussels, July 14. N. S. The late Bishop of Rochester passed through this Place some Days ago, in his Way to Spa. During his Stay here, he sent a Person with a Message in Writing to the Earl of Ailesbury, a Copy of which is verbatim as follows:

"That the Earl of Ailesbury would be pleased to let the Marquess de Prié know, that the Bishop of Rochester is come to settle in Brussels, and is about hiring an House for some Time, under Confidence of not being any ways molested or disquieted during his Residence in this Part of the Dominions of his Imperial Majesty, on whose Protection he relies.

The Earl of Ailesbury returned the Paper by the Person who brought it, bidding him acquaint the said late Bishop, that he desired to be excused from seeing him, or meddling in any Manner in his Concerns.

Paris, July 17. Although the Cardinal Prime Minister is in pretty good Health at present, his Eminency did not come hither this Week to give Audience to the foreign Ministers, neither is he expected here on that Account while the Court continues at Meudon. M. Pelletier de la Houssaye, formerly Comptroller-General of the Finances, had a Fit of an Apoplexy on the 10th Instant, as had also the Marquess de Hautefort last Week. M. de la Jonchiere has given a List of 42 Persons to whom he could not refuse giving Money for their Bank Bills, notwithstanding they were then fallen. It is discomfited, that a new Commission of Enquiry will be set up to examine into the Accounts of certain Receivers of the King's Forests and Demesnes, who are accused of Male-Practices in their Offices. It is affirmed, that the Officers of the Post-house have asked of the King 100,000 Crowns to make good their Loss occasioned by perverting Letters, and Interruptions of the Post during the Time the Contagion lasted in Provence and Places adjacent. The Members of the Grand Council take abundance of Pains in enquiring into the Affair concerning the Abbot Clement, pretending that he being an Honorary Councillour in their Jurisdiction, ought to have been judged by the same, and not by a Particular one; however, 'tis believed they will not gain their Point, for the Parliament was just in the same Case with respect to M. de Talhoer, who was attached the 7th Instant, by Virtue of a Lettre de Cachet; but his Sentence has been again superceeded. The India Company sent last Week to the Custom-house 2,500,000 l. worth of Pistres, intended, as 'tis said, for that Company's Trade in the Indies. It has been currently reported for some time past, that the Value of the old Lewis d'Ors would speedily be reduced, which has occasioned the Rise of most kind of Goods, and made it difficult to get any Change for that Coin without losing 18 or 20 Sols upon each Lewis d'Or; several Disorders also have happened on this Account, particularly on the 14th, when a Coachman having spent five Livres at a publick House, gave a Lewis to the Master for Change, who refused to return the rest, or to lend a Pistole upon it; this Contest occasioned the coming in of the Watch, who killed a Footman with three Wounds of their Bayonets, who took the Coachman's Part. The Fear of this Diminution occasions the Actions to keep at the Rate of 850 Livres, and Liquidations at 18 Livres 5 Sols. On the 14th Instant, the Count de Belle-lle, Colonel-General of Dragoons, and his Brother; also Mess. de Conches and Mazier, Brigadiers, were cited to give their personal Appearance relating to M. de la Jonchiere's Affair, who has declared to have given them great Sums in ready Money for their Bank Bills. The Marechal d'Estrees, Vice-Admiral of France, Governour of Brittany, died suddenly the 16th in the Morning without Issue. M. Fleury, one of the 40 Members of the French Academy, and formerly Councillour to the King, died in this City the 14th, in the 82d Year of his Age. He had been Sub-Preceptor to the Royal Infants of France, and gained extraordinary Reputation by several Books which he wrote, the chiefest being the Historical Catechism, and his Church-History continued by him to the Council of Constance; he was not less commendable for his Piety and great Modesty.
